

THREE DAYS IN IRELAND

A travel itinerary arranged for you by

Tir Na nOg ag
Vacation Adventures

DAY

I

DUBLIN

TRINITY AND THE TEMPLE

DAY

II

WILD ATLANTIC WAY

DAY

III

BELFAST AND THE NORTH

DUBLIN TRINITY AND TEMPLE BAR

Top of the mornin' to ya.

(Eight-Thirty AM)

Begin your journey in Dublin with a hearty Irish breakfast at the Lemon Jelly Cafe, only a stones throw from your lodgings at the Castle Hotel.

(One O'clock PM)

Enjoy a guided walking tour along the River Tiffey and through Dublin's literary landmarks. Awaiting your gaze at the famed Trinity Library. are one of a kind illuminated texts crafted by monks centuries ago.

(Nine O'clock PM)

Before your day is complete take the chance to immerse yourself in Irish culture at a traditional pub, the Temple Bar perhaps. You may find yourself listening to live music and savoring classic Irish dishes after a pint or two.

The Castle Hotel

A full Irish breakfast at Lemon Jelly Cafe

The James Joyce talking statue.

The esteemed Trinity College and Library

The Temple Bar, Dublin.

WILD ATLANTIC WAY

G'day traveller!
Are ya after seein' Dublin?

(Nine O'clock AM)
This morning drive along the Wild Atlantic Way, stopping in coastal towns like Doolin and Clifden to enjoy fresh seafood and explore local crafts.

(Two O'clock PM)
Travel to the Castle Kylemore, marveling at the stunning coastal views and observing diverse bird species.

(Six O'clock PM)
Stay overnight in Galway, where you can experience the city's vibrant arts scene and bustling streets.

BELFAST AND THE NORTH

Today we're off to Belfast

(Eight-thirty AM)

First stop is the legendary monolith, older than Stonehenge, have a gander at Newgrange.

(Eleven O'clock AM)

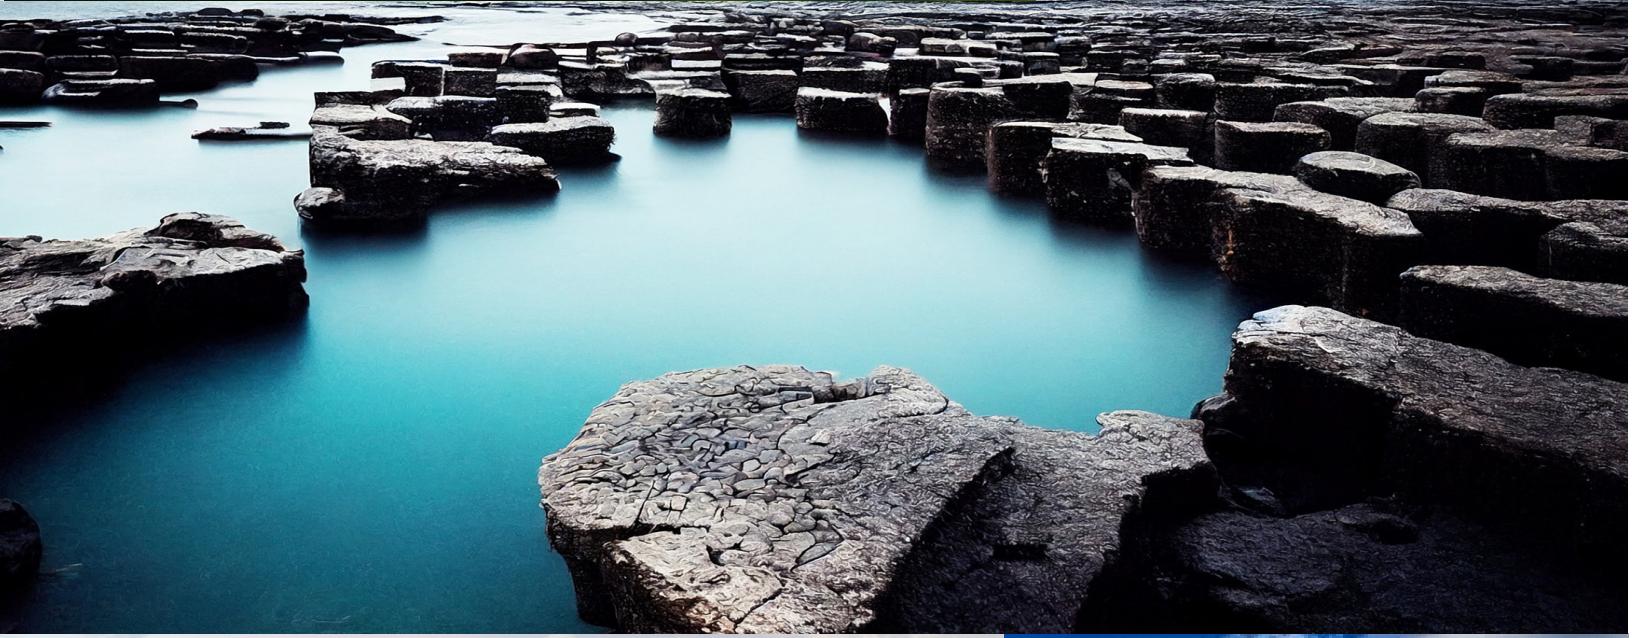

Behold the magnificent Giant's Causeway, the octagonal steps caused by volcanic fissure eruptions.

(One O'clock PM)

Endeavor the scenic Carrick-a-Rede rope bridge.

(Four O'clock PM)

Close your adventure in Belfast. Here you'll be learning about the city's complex history at the Titanic Belfast museum before touring the city's political murals.

Tir Na nOg ag

Vacation Adventures